PUBLIC AGENDA

Miguel Bañuelos, invited DAB members and the public to attend the Grand Opening of Plaza México located at 808 W. 25th scheduled for Sunday, June 30, 2002. This is where the old bowling alley used to be. The building will now be the home to 25 small stores including a bakery, flower shop, cell-phones, boot repair, beauty shop, and much more. Mr. Bañuelos plans on having some form of entertainment every Sunday afternoon, including clowns, music, dance performances from schools and more.

Questions asked of Mr. Bañuelos follow:

- What will the hours of operation be? From 9-9 and closed one day during the week.
- How much seating will the restaurant hold? Between 30 - 40 people.
- Will there be plenty of parking space? Yes, there is enough for 1000 people as they will come and go. 500 marked spaces.
- Will everything be inside? No vendors or activities outside.

Members wished Mr. Bañuelos good luck with his new business adventure.

- g. Mid-America All Indian Center, Inc.: B.E. A. T. Outdoor/Indoor Activity program.
DAB Discussion on this application follows:
  - ✓ The number of agency's already funding this program are they contributing or collaborating.
  - ✓ This program is designed for youth from all over the City of Wichita. Every DAB should contribute and how do we know they haven't applied at each DAB.
  - ✓ They should be more specific on who they target
  - ✓ Does not serve individual neighborhoods
  - ✓ Mixed emotions on this applicationFinal discussion followed with DAB members making the following motion. *****Action taken: Motion to award only $2000.00 for the B.E.A.T. program (Willis/Bradley 4-2 Matney/Schreck)

h. Emerson Parent Teacher Organization: Emerson Playground Equipment.

DAB Discussion on this application follows:

- ✓ With 11 elementary schools in District VI, will we be receiving applications from all of them for school playground equipment.
- ✓ This is on Board of Education (BOE) property and the playground equipment will be the BOE's property.
- ✓ The BOE was not listed on the application as supporting this project.
- ✓ This is a magnet school, students from all over the city come here. Every DAB should contribute and how do we know they haven't applied at each DAB.
- ✓ We need to establish a dollar limit for when schools apply as to how much we will give.

*****Action taken: Motion to award only $2000.00 for the playground equipment. (Wine/Schreck 6-0)

3. Announcements
